Larkfield
Family Dental

A clearer first visit.

A guide to your care,
your questions and what comes next.

Start with a conversation.

Your first appointment is a chance to discuss your concerns, share your health history and understand the next steps. Tell the team what would help you feel more comfortable.

Illustrative consultation / Cedric Fauntleroy, Pexels

Know who to ask.

Reception

Appointment enquiries, access needs and practical arrangements.

Clinician

Your examination, treatment options and questions about care.

Dental nurse

Support during the appointment and help with the visit routine.

Role guide / no individual clinician profiles are represented.

Explore your options.

Check-up

An examination of your teeth, gums and mouth, with time to discuss concerns.

Ask: when should I return?

Hygiene care

A discussion of cleaning and gum care, with treatment where appropriate.

Ask: what can I improve at home?

Fillings

A way to restore a damaged part of a tooth when a filling is suitable.

Ask: what are the options?

Suitability, cost and alternatives are discussed before consent.

Care shaped around you.

Crowns

A covering used to restore a tooth where this option is appropriate.

Ask: what does the process involve?

Whitening

A cosmetic option requiring a dental assessment of suitability.

Ask: is this suitable for me?

Dentures

Removable replacements for missing teeth, planned for individual needs.

Ask: what adjustment is expected?

Suitability, cost and alternatives are discussed before consent.

One step at a time.

1

Tell us

Share concerns, medicines, health history and access needs.

2

Review

The clinician examines your teeth, gums and mouth as appropriate.

3

Discuss

Ask about options, alternatives, costs and what follows.

4

Decide

Agree a plan after your questions have been answered.

Insurance: cover varies. Ask your insurer about benefits, limits and any approval needed before treatment.

Bring the questions too.

I feel nervous. What can I do?

Tell the team before your visit. Discuss your concerns and agree how you can ask for a pause.

Will treatment happen straight away?

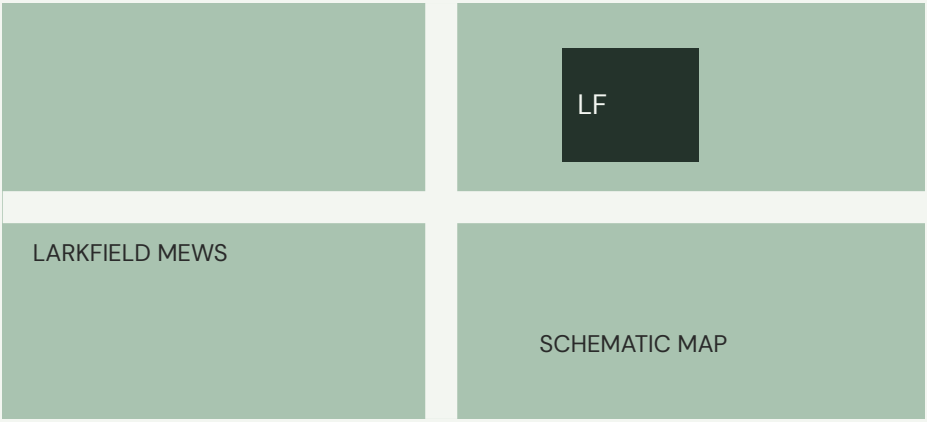

The next step depends on the assessment and agreed plan. Ask what is proposed before giving consent.

How much will it cost?

Ask for the proposed costs, alternatives and payment arrangements before you decide.

Begin with a first-visit enquiry.
Ask about availability and appointment terms.

Plan your visit.

HOURS
Mon–Fri 09:00–17:00
Saturday by arrangement
Sunday closed

CONTACT
14 Larkfield Mews
Ashmere
hello@larkfield.example

Portfolio practice identity. Address, hours, map and contact are illustrative. No operational booking or medical service is offered.